

"The riding center ""El Ranchito"" is located in Torremolinos, more than 30 years teaching riding horses from childhood riders to seniors with their courses and high school dressage and others. You can enjoy services such as horseback riding in the mountains around, in group or private ridings from 6 years.

We also offer children's camps that teach the importance of caring and respect for the horse, and the interaction between them, educating the animal and children so that they grow to value the benefits of both together.

But if something has internationally recognized is the show ""Ritmo a Caballo"", with 25 seasons already existing and hundreds of thousands people have already enjoyed over the years of its spectacular show that is held every Wednesday in the center (closed and conditioned for this show) track.

It is further complemented from May to October with the ""Andalusian Night"" pack horse show also offers the flamenco show in live, dinner with unlimited buffet drinks and free bus *.

Further information, bookings and/or questions you could visit directly to our website www.ranchito.com, Google simultaneously translated into all the languages available on this platform, you can safely purchase tickets through the same web even without additional fees.
