

Craigatin House

COURTYARD

+

PITLOCHRY

The best places
sometimes come as a complete surprise...

Formerly built and owned by the famous Doctor William Stewart Irvine in the early 1800's, this beautiful Victorian house has now been transformed into an award winning, luxury, boutique bed and breakfast.

A celebration of design and individuality, Craigatin House & Courtyard offers modern, city style accommodation in a beautiful Highland setting. A definite change from the expected!

Exclusive boutique bed and breakfast accommodation is offered over 14 spacious and sumptuous en-suite bedrooms including a Suite, all individually designed and decorated.

Craigatin House & Courtyard is an alluring haven in Pitlochry, Scotland with the natural beauty of Highland Perthshire and all its attractions right on your doorstep.

Simply Excellent

- TRIPADVISOR

Craigatin House and Courtyard Boutique Bed & Breakfast

Start your day with a hearty Scottish breakfast served in our modern and contemporary dining rooms. We offer a full range of breakfast choices including the full Scottish, filling omelettes, delicious pancakes and our famous Craigatin Whisky porridge.

Afterwards, watch the garden birds and occasional red squirrels or simply relax in our comfortable guest lounge, flooded with natural light by floor to ceiling windows and all centred round our large welcoming log burning stove.

Pitlochry is set in spectacular Highland scenery and is ideally located for touring Highland Perthshire. The town sits on the edge of the Cairngorm National Park and beside the majestic River Tummel.

With a backdrop of surrounding hills and beautiful woodlands, this is wonderful walking country. Make Craigatin House & Courtyard your accommodation choice when staying in Pitlochry.

Plenty to see and do in the heart of Scotland

Pitlochry town sits in the shadows of "Ben Vrackie" mountain, 841m high with the River Tummel and Loch Faskally at its base, bringing a wealth of adventure and activities for visitors.

From mountain biking, rafting, Land Rover safaris, Whisky tasting and walking the Rob Roy Way to shopping at the many individual shops in Pitlochry or visiting the House of Bruar.

Craigatin House and Courtyard is centrally located in Pitlochry, just a short, flat walk to all the town's attractions, shops, bars and restaurants. From the heart of Scotland you can experience it all.

Listed below are a few of our local recommendations to visit. See our website for a more comprehensive list:

Pitlochry Festival Theatre
The Pass of Killiecrankie
The Queens View
The House of Bruar
Pitlochry Dam and Fish Ladder
Edradour and Blair Athol Distilleries
Blair Castle
Pitlochry Golf Course
Highland Safaris

Craigatin House and Courtyard
165 Atholl Road, Pitlochry, Perthshire, PH16 5QL
Tel: 01796 472478
Email: enquiries@craigatinhouse.co.uk

www.craigatinhouse.co.uk