A Warm Welcome on
The Holy Island of Lindisfarne

JANUARY SUNRISE

Lindisfarne Castle and the harbour.

Guest Rooms: All our rooms are en-suite with WC, hand-basin and quadrant shower enclosure and equipped with Freeview TV, hairdryer and tea/coffee hospitality tray.

Room 1 & 2: Double bedded rooms with outlook over garden to local countryside and Lindisfarne Castle.

Room 3: Large twin-bedded room with outlook to side of.

Breakfast Choice: A range of choices are available from our inclusive breakfast menu that includes the award-winning 'Bamburgh Bangers' and other local produce when available. Vegetarians have a similar range of choice. Other diets can be catered for by arrangement.

Holy Island is popular at all times of the year so we advise that you book early to avoid disappointment particularly in high season.

Whilst Spring and Autumn are particularly significant times for bird watchers, throughout the year you may expect to find Pilgrims, Photographers and Artists attracted by the Island's religious history, inherent spirituality and scenic beauty. Holy Island features on the routes: 'St. Cuthbert's Way' 'new coast-to-coast' and 'St. Oswald's Way' and attracts many walkers.

THE GARDEN

General: A quiet location on the edge of the tiny village/hamlet of Holy Island. Those already familiar with the Island will appreciate the convenience of off-road parking in our private car park and tranquillity of our secluded garden with its beautiful views towards

LINDISFARNE CASTLE

Accessibility: Holy Island is signposted 5 miles from the A1 trunk road at Beal, which is about 8 miles south of Berwick-upon-Tweed. Causeway crossing times are available for your date of arrival on request.

SANDHAM COVE

By Train: To/from Berwick main line station and thence by bus or local taxi: Mobile : 07732 520 385 385

By Bus: Route 477 between Berwick and Holy Island. Operates most days during peak season though infrequently out of season. There is a regular daily service between Newcastle and Berwick which stops at Beal. (Tel:01670 533998)

Our History: We have been in business since 1996 and are continually delighted to have had the privilege of welcoming such a huge range of guests - in particular because so many return year after year.
