Dogs are welcome on leads in the park only. Leighton Hall has made every reasonable effort to make the Hall, gardens and facilities accessible to all visitors. However, regrettably, the Hall's first floor is inaccessible for wheelchair users. Assistance may also be needed in some ground floor areas. The owners reserve the right to close or restrict access to Leighton Hall and its grounds for special events or at any other time without prior notice.

Award winning Leighton Hall is the lived in home of the Gillow Reynolds family. Guided house tours are informal and entertaining. There are no roped off areas and visitors are invited to sit on the furniture, touch things, relax, and really get involved.

Children are always welcome and there's plenty for them to do! Enjoy the Tree Face Trail, caterpillar maze, outdoor play area, climbing frame, swings and slide. In August, children can also take part in a FREE Teddy Bear Hunt.

Outside are acres of grounds and gardens, a herb patch, ornamental vegetable plot and an abundant 19th century walled garden. Birds of prey fly every day (weather permitting) at 3:30pm. Finish your day with a cup of tea served in Leighton's charming tearooms.
