Cobble Cottage in Dent

Cobble Cottage in Dent near Sedbergh offers great value for money in the current economic climate

Cobble Cottage is located in the beautiful village of Dent, in the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Dentedale is regarded as one of the most beautiful dales in the Yorkshire Dales National Park. Dent's tea-rooms and pubs offer a good choice for eating out, or you can just enjoy a quiet cup of tea, or one of the Dent brewed beers. There are several shops in Dent plus a bus service to and from Sedbergh, Oxenholme station and Kendal.

Dent is central to the most beautiful touring country; with the Lake District and the Yorkshire Moors only a short driving distance away. Moreover, Dent offers the most wonderful opportunity for long or short distance walking. There are some short, easy but very enjoyable walks along the river, the Dales Way runs through Dent for the more advanced, or there are the famous three Peaks for the really energetic walker!

Dent Railway station is about 4 miles from Dent Village and is situated on the famous Settle to Carlisle Railway line. The Denthead and Ribbleshead Viaducts being not far away. Both can be viewed from the road.

Cobble Cottage is a charming semidetached cottage. It was built around 1800 and is in the very centre of Dent, opposite The Sun Inn. It sleeps four people, and we allow one well-behaved dog. No smoking is allowed in the cottage.
