'A charming and often amusing reverence to the city'
- Expedia.com

'Charming, funny...100% enjoyable'

'An amazing guide...he managed to create a storyline which pulled together the history of the city and its people right up to the present day, illustrated with funny stories, and photos'

'Our tour guide allowed Brighton to be the star whilst letting us discover a quirkier unknown side of the town with his gentle humour'

This is such a great tour! It was funny, interesting, and showed the best (and most peculiar) of a fascinating city'

'Our group comprised kids, young and a little bit less young, locals and foreigners, and we all had a great time'

Only in Brighton! is a 90-minute fact-filled and tongue-in-cheek walk around the star sights and hidden corners of the city. For the visitor, it is an insider's introduction; for those who know Brighton well, it's a revelation and celebration.

'In among the facts and jokes there were actually some lovely and poignant moments as the guide's love for the place came through'

'Will make you fall in love with Brighton all over again'

'Supports the belief that Brighton has always been just a little bit bonkers!'

'For Brightonians, you'll be intrigued by the things you pass each day but never noticed. For tourists, you'll see the expected, but will also see things other tours won't cover'

'We enjoyed every minute of it and would definitely recommend doing this tour to anyone'
