RELIVE HISTORY

On June 3, 1886, a group of 30 men in Plymouth organized the area's first trolley company – the Plymouth & Kingston Street Railway. The Old Colony Railroad had provided heavy rail service to the area, but no short runs along the streets where people lived and worked.

Charles Stone and his partner, Edwin Webster, of the engineering and management company, Stone & Webster, organized the Brockton & Plymouth Street Railway in 1889 to address this need. The trolleys were primarily used by workers during the work week. Ridership fell on Sundays, so the street railway companies invented the "Joy Ride" and new destinations were created.

After World War I, their rails, section by section, became abandoned and service was replaced with buses.

Today, our buses and trolleys provide comfortable and convenient service from Boston to Plymouth to Cape Cod.

Extend your Historic Visit with the PASSAGE to PLYMOUTH

Begin at South Station Bus Terminal (700 Atlantic Avenue), to purchase tickets at the Plymouth & Brockton Counter, or on weekends, at the Greyhound Ticket Desk. Board the P&B bus, and after a short, relaxing ride, passengers transfer to the America's Hometown Shuttle at the Park & Ride Lot in Plymouth. You can then purchase your discounted Trolley tickets with your P&B bus receipt from the trolley driver. After your day in Plymouth, meet the trolley at Plymouth Rock-Mayflower II at 4:50pm for a ride back to the Park & Ride lot to board the bus to Boston. If you're running late, or wish to extend your visit, no worries! You can pick up a bus as late as 9:15pm at the Park & Ride, but a taxi ride will be required.
