SUMMER 2018

WWW.THEBREWHOUSE.NET

We end The Brewhouse's 40th Anniversary Year with an exhibition which celebrates the venue's rich heritage, with opportunities for you to embellish our timeline with your own recollections and mementos. Other wonderful exhibitions taking place include gifted painter Phil Davies, an installation by emerging artist Shizico Yi and selected sculptures and art works by members of Somerset Art Gallery Trust.

Our first Friends event will take place in May with a special offer to see the wonderful jazz singer Stacey Kent. Other musical highlights include a glorious Classical Summer Concert series, the spirited Yoruba Women's Choir and the legendary Courtney Pine. More authentic music comes from Show of Hands and Jason Donavon alongside great tribute acts including Jonny Cash and Wham!

Dance enthusiasts can experience Strictly's Giovanni best moves, ZoieLogic Dance Theatre's detective work Sleuth, Ballet Cymru's enchanting Cinderella and Akram Khan's Giselle. You can meet the Mad, Bad & Dangerous to Know Lord Byron or An Ideal Husband in our drama offer.

See family favourites What the Ladybird Heard, The Gruffalo's Child and TAOS's wonderfully talented young cast in Oliver this season. Get creative and bring the kids to help us build an awesome castle during May half-term. We are also delighted to have been giving the rights to produce the iconic musical The Wizard of Oz this Christmas; auditions for Munchkins and dogs will be held in June!

I simply don't have space to mention all the wonderful activities you can take part in and films you can see, but I do encourage you to become a Friend and sign up to our mailing list so you can keep up-to-date with our latest announcements and not miss out on any hot-tickets.

A sunny welcome awaits you, Vanessa
