Glass Paperweight Experience Class

Are you interested in making a glass paperweight? Come get a hands-on experience in the art of paperweight making. These experiences are quick introductions to creating beautiful paperweights. They are fun and no experience required. They make wonderful gifts for loved ones, and friends or just treat yourself. The pieces you create will be ready for pick-up one to two days after your event, or can be shipped to you. With the help of instructors, you will be able to make molten glass into a paperweight!
