

Welcome to 48 Doughty Street, the London home of Charles Dickens.

The Charles Dickens Museum immerses you in the life of Charles Dickens. Here at Doughty Street we encourage you to experience his life and to explore the house that became a family home to his young children. Feel his presence in the very rooms where he wrote Oliver Twist and Nicholas Nickleby.

See the desk where Dickens worked, imagine how he entertained his many guests at dinner, and be captivated by the letters, stories and novels that Dickens wrote. It was in this Georgian terraced house in Bloomsbury that he achieved lasting celebrity and universal recognition as one of the greatest storytellers of all time.

Walk in Dickens's footsteps and see how his many experiences influenced and shaped the characters he created. Discover how he became famous during his lifetime and why his work continues to be so loved throughout the world today.

The Museum also hosts a fascinating series of temporary exhibitions and a lively programme of events. Visit our website: dickensmuseum.com/blogs/all-events to make sure you don't miss them!

FIND US ONLINE

A wealth of information about the Museum and what we do is available at: dickensmuseum.com

Keep in contact with us

Stay up to date and make sure you're the first to know about special events by signing up to our e-newsletter.

Book tickets

You can buy tickets online for general admission or for any of the events that we offer.

Group bookings

We welcome groups of all types and have a dedicated booking service to ensure that your group gets the most from their visit.

Venue hire

Our Museum provides the perfect setting for an atmospheric dinner, elegant drinks reception, private corporate event, exclusive after hours tour or as an historical location for film or photo shoots.

Become a Friend

By becoming a Friend of the Museum you play a vital role in supporting all that we do. Our Friends all enjoy free admission, invitations to exclusive events and discounts in our café and shop.

Support the Museum

The Charles Dickens Museum is an independent museum and a recognised charity set up to protect and preserve 48 Doughty Street and its historic collection.
(The Dickens House and Dickens House Fund, charity number 212172)

Find us on:

“Going in the Drawing Room, I suddenly got a sense of him as a person who lived, breathed, worked and played. Dickens’s presence is immensely strong.”

Simon Callow | Actor, Director & Writer

Feel Dickens’s presence at his only surviving London townhouse. Step back in time and experience the world of Charles Dickens at 48 Doughty Street.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

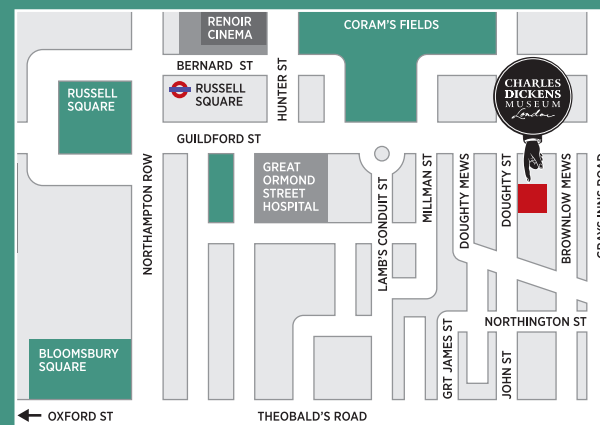

Opening hours: Tuesday to Sunday 10am–6pm.
Last admission 4pm

Entrance fees: Adults £9, Concession £6,
Children (6–16) £4, Under 6: free.

Eating and drinking: Our delightful garden cafe is open all year round and is free to visit. We offer delicious cakes and lunch options as well as a variety of teas, hand-crafted coffees, soft drinks, beer and wine.

Gift Shop: Our beautiful gift shop offers you the chance to take a unique memory of the Museum home with you. You can also shop online at: dickensmuseum.com

Access: The Museum has step free access and is accessible for wheelchair users. Induction Loops and audio guides for visually impaired visitors are available. For more information please call 020 7405 2127 or visit: dickensmuseum.com

www.dickensmuseum.com

48 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2LX

t: 020 7405 2127 | e: info@dickensmuseum.com

CHARLES DICKENS MUSEUM London

Feel Dickens’s presence at his only surviving London townhouse

48 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2LX

www.dickensmuseum.com