

The benefits of playing golf

Playing golf regularly can help you stay fit, improve muscle endurance and lose weight. It can also be a great way to keep in touch with friends, reduce stress and provides opportunities to meet new people.

Being a member of a golf club gives access to internal golf club competitions. It also offers the opportunity to play in open competitions and in various formats at other clubs. This gives the chance to play at venues across the country whereby you can play open competitions at some of the very best golf courses in the world with food and prizes at amazing prices.

One of the advantages of being a golf club member is that you can play a few holes after work and not worry about the cost of it. Evening rounds in the summer are some of the most enjoyable times to experience on the course, and often some of the quietest. Equally, those times when you've paid a green fee and the rain suddenly pours down or when you don't quite finish the round due to darkness, leave you feeling that you haven't had your money's worth. This is not a problem with golf club membership.

Cleethorpes Golf Club is a members club designed to give maximum enjoyment both on and off the golf course.

There are a multitude of benefits of being a member of Cleethorpes Golf Club as opposed to paying green fees and there are membership categories tailored to different requirements such as age, for beginners and for those who live further away.

It is also apparent that the lifestyles of many golfers deter them from becoming full playing members and as a result being unable to enjoy the benefits of golf club membership.

Consequently Cleethorpes Golf Club has a number of membership categories for those with limited time to play: flexible (silver and bronze), trial and twilight.

For more information on the specific benefits and the terms and conditions of each category please ask in the office.
