

NEW GONDOLA CABLEWAY

Our new 8-seater cable cars whisk you directly to the glacier world on TITLIS. Simply hop on at the TITLIS valley station in Engelberg and enjoy the comfy ride to Trübsee or on to Stand, without having to change.

Want to go even higher? From Stand station, you can take the TITLIS ROTAIR revolving cable car to the TITLIS summit station.

ROWING

There are a number of rowing boats for hire at Trübsee. Take the oars and row with gusto or simply enjoy a leisurely paddle across the lake.

TRÜBSEE SNOW PARK

Let off some steam in the snow park at Trübsee Alpine Lodge. Grab a snowtube, minibob or balancer and whiz down the piste, whipping up plenty of snow as you go.

IGLOO VILLAGE

The Trübsee igloo village is a small village made of ice and located in the heart of a magnificent mountain landscape. Be sure to make a detour to the igloo bar and enjoy the special atmosphere amid all the snow and ice.

HOW TO REACH THE MOUNTAIN

BY CAR

Follow the A2 and take the Stans Süd exit before continuing along the main road to Engelberg. You can park your car in the car park at the TITLIS valley station.

BY TRAIN

The "Zentralbahn" railway transports you from Lucerne to Engelberg in just 45 minutes. From here, it's a 10-minute walk or a 3-minute bus ride to the cable car valley station.

UP THE MOUNTAIN

The new 8-seater cable cars whisk you comfortably from Engelberg directly to Stand station. You can then take the TITLIS ROTAIR, the world's first revolving cable car, to the summit station at 3,020 metres above sea level.

SUMMER FUN

SCOOTERS & DEVIL BIKES

Jump on a scooter and whiz down the mountain from Gerschnialp to the valley station. Our devil bikes will provide you with the ultimate off-road experience – all the way from Jochpass to Trübsee.

HIKING

An extensive network of hiking trails and lots of different routes await, offering anything from a leisurely stroll to a challenging hike. The 4-Lake Hike takes you from Trübsee station on TITLIS via Jochpass to Melchsee-Frut, and is something of an insider tip.

VIA FERRATA

For keen climbers with a head for heights: The via ferrata route begins at Berghaus Jochpass and crosses an exposed rock face before reaching Graustock. Along the way, steep mountain paths give way to challenging climbing sections. Appropriate climbing gear is essential.

MOUNTAIN BIKING

Whether you're looking for a sporting thrill on a singletrack, a leisurely ride with the family or simply want to free-wheel downhill, TITLIS is a haven for mountain bike enthusiasts.

SKIING AND SNOWBOARDING

Whether you're strapped to a board or a pair of skis, TITLIS promises the ultimate in winter fun. Boasting more than 80 km of slopes, most of which are snow-sure, the ski area offers plenty of variety. What's more, we guarantee fun in the snow from October through until May.

SNOWSHOE TRAILS AND WINTER WALKING

Strap on your snowshoes and make tracks through the glistening powder snow. Numerous trails await around Gerschnialp and Trübsee. Our network of winter walking trails spans some 50 kilometres, crossing mountains and valleys. Explore the magical winter landscape on TITLIS.

SNOWXPARK

Turn the throttle and race through the snow with your friends. Who will take the lead? At the Trübsee race course, you can take the bends at high speed, while the electric motors ensure that noise is kept to a minimum.

TOBOGANNING

Covering a distance of 3,500 metres and an altitude of 250 metres, our toboggan run is sure to set pulses racing. You and your fellow tobogganers are in for an exhilarating ride as you whiz through the snow-covered forests all the way down from Gerschnialp to Engelberg.
