In the heart of Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, Thalias group offers exquisite French gourmet dining at Topaz, high-end Cambodian cuisine with a twist at Malis, efficient business luxury at the Arunreas hotel and Khéma, which is also a café, delicatessen, wine bar, bakery and pastry shop.

Topaz is a sophisticated French cut above the rest with upstairs private rooms, a unique walk-in, floor-to-ceiling wine cellar with exceptional vintages, and a humidor stocked with the finest imported cigars. Elegance and creativity are perfect partners alongside unequalled service with an eye to mouthwatering presentation and a menu based on Gallic know-how. Widely considered to be the first choice of visitors and residents in the capital.

Malis is a landmark restaurant that has long enjoyed a reputation for pushing the boundaries of traditional and modern Cambodian cuisine. With ample seating and VIP rooms set around a water garden and courtyard, it is unquestionably the capital's premier gourmet dining experience. Its busy kitchen is home to Luu Meng, Cambodia's only Masterchef, whose artfully prepared dishes have graced tables around the world.

Arunreas hotel is destined and designed to be a second home for the discerning visiting businessmen and women who need convenience, luxury and connectivity at the touch of a button. Dawn arrivals will have the sun on their back as the entrance, like Buddha, faces the east to welcome the age of enlightenment. With a limited number of spacious rooms and a minimalist yet functional design, it is leading the way forward into a more prosperous future.

Khéma is a unique hospitality concept combining the best of boutique and the height of luxury. With a take-out gourmet delicatessen and dine-in café, it features carefully selected imported charcuterie and cheeses, our masterchef pastries, breads, designer soups, salads and sandwiches. The rhythm of the café moves seamlessly from breakfast to lunch followed by an afternoon of gelati, pastry and coffee before its evening transformation into a wine bar and restaurant.
