Moonlit Sanctuary Wildlife Conservation Park, an Eco-certified sanctuary, is first. Handfeed wallabies– keep an eye out for tiny joeys wriggling out of their mothers' pouches – and have a close encounter with a koala (fee applies).

At the Nobbies, the clifftop boardwalk opens up breathtaking views of Phillip Island's wild south coast, and there are further lookout points among natural sea bird gardens which have spectacular flowering displays in spring.

Then witness Victoria's largest colony of little penguins in the nightly Penguin Parade. As dusk falls, hundreds of little penguins splash out of the water on to the beach, making their way to their burrows. They feed at sea, and return to their burrows to mate, care for their young and to moult.

One of Australia's most spectacular national parks – and our best kept secret!

Towering cliffs, wild oceans, sparkling white sand beaches, abundant wildlife, rainforests, woodlands, half of Victoria's bird species and more than 30 species of native mammals make Wilsons Promontory an unbelievable natural experience.

This spectacular geological site was formed by a huge granite mass extending across what is now Bass Strait to north east Tasmania. It's been eroded over the millennia, creating fantastic landforms including mountain peaks, steep cliffs, enormous boulders, rocky outcrops and sweeping bays.

Affectionately known as "The Prom", it was declared a National Park in 1898. It was occupied by Aboriginal people at least 6500 years ago, but these links may go back to ancient Ice Ages when it was a land bridge to Tasmania.

Right at the southernmost tip of mainland Australia,

The Prom is a pristine environment of more than 50,000 hectares that's criss-crossed with walking tracks ranging from picturesque beach strolls to peaceful bush walks and challenging hikes up mountain peaks.

A wildlife haven

The Prom's forests and sprawling bushlands are home to many native creatures, including kangaroos, koalas, wombats and emus. Walk quietly, and you may be rewarded by seeing these animals in their natural environment.

Wilsons Prom and its islands have been declared an Important Bird Area by BirdLife International, and are home to many bird species including thousands of migratory shearwaters, cormorants, plovers, brilliantly coloured cockatoos, honeyeaters, firetails and the flame robin (summer only). Birdsong is often a beautiful accompaniment to your bushwalks.

HIGHLIGHTS

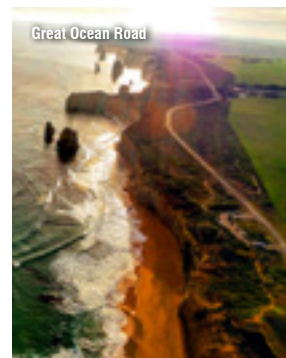

- ▶ 3 – 4 hours for bushwalking, sightseeing, birdwatching and spotting native animals.
- ▶ Squeaky Beach is one of Australia's most famous, as the quartz sand really does squeak as you stroll between rolling surf and windswept vegetation.
- ▶ Giant Rock is one of the massive granite formations.
- ▶ Go wildlife spotting at a deserted old airfield.
- ▶ Tidal River, where you can learn more about this extraordinary national park in Australia's southernmost region.
- ▶ Hike through some spectacular tracks such as; Lilly Pilly Gully, explore healthlands, eucalypt forest and warm temperate rainforest. Mt Oberon Summit This walk rewards with the most spectacular views of The Prom. Mt Bishop More rugged than Mt Oberon, with equally brilliant summit views.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

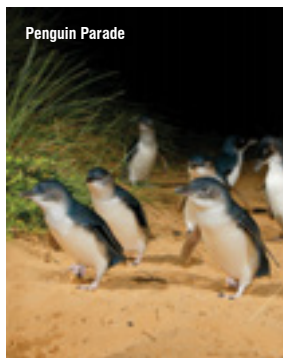

- ▶ All park entrance fees
- ▶ Friendly & informative tour guide

YOU PROVIDE

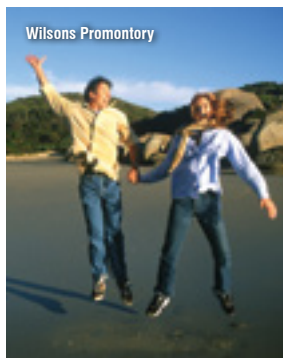

- ▶ Appropriate shoes for walking
- ▶ Appropriate clothing for warm & cold conditions

Gold! There is nothing quite like it! This precious metal has been valuable and highly sought after since the beginning of time. Join our nostalgic journey and experience the magic of Victoria's gold rush era on this unrivalled interactive day trip to Sovereign Hill, Australia's foremost outdoor museum.

Hear stories of Australia's most infamous bushrangers and the 1850s gold rush, then experience traditional farm life.

Depart from Sydney or Melbourne, exploring Canberra en route.

What a capital tour! This is simply the best way to travel between elegant Melbourne and vibrant Sydney (or in reverse), because you see so many iconic sights on the way. The Victorian Alps, the Great Dividing Range, vast forests and mighty rivers. Learn about some great Australian legends: Ned Kelly and the infamous bushrangers (outlaws) when you're in Mansfield and the frenetic Australian gold rush of the 1850s around Beechworth. Ned Kelly stood trial for murder here, but the town is now equally famous for its abundant local produce.

Bunyip Mythology. What is the Bunyip?

Australia is an old continent full of enchanting creatures and fascinating stories. To Australian Aboriginal people, this land is full of rich creation stories, with dreamtime animals and characters that shaped the land and its people.

The Bunyip is a mythical, dreamtime creature that is said to inhabit swamps and billabongs, and prey upon those who venture where they shouldn't go. Various accounts and explanations of Bunyips have been given across Australia since the early days of the colonies. If you or your friends get a photo of a Bunyip then you can take the tours for free!!
