

AUCKLAND

Downtown gourmet food and wine tasting tour

Downtown city gourmet tour 2.5 hours approx.

If you love food, wine, a little walking and want to familiarize yourself with this area and its people, this is the tour for you! Auckland is a melting pot of different nationalities from all over the globe and the best way to experience this, is through food. Meet our local guide and discover downtown Auckland and its award winning and often hard to find eating establishments. Discover how downtown evolved from the earliest colonists and the buildings & streets they left behind. A great tour to do on arrival to our beautiful city, as you will become familiar with this historical part of town and what it has to offer.

Overview

Our small group meets inside the Ferry Building under the arch, and we continue through the old Central Post Office to Britomart Place showing the old and new. Continuing through tiny side streets you will stop to sample delicious hors d'oeuvres often times a tasting of the establishments 'signature dish'. The tasty morsels are made from fresh local produce accompanied by matching wine tastings. You will be introduced to Auckland's first street, oldest bar and award winning restaurants and much more. Each stop en route has its own unique character and its own story to tell, through its people, building, food and wine making this a most memorable experience.
