EVERY SEASON, THERE'S A REASON TO VISIT CARTER MOUNTAIN

At apple blossom time, we kick off the season with an Easter Egg Hunt and Spring Fling. In summer, the orchard is bursting with tasty, tree-ripened peaches just waiting to be picked. As the kids head to school, the apples ripen and invite you out to relish the cooling weather. The Country Store is always stocked full of goodies perfect for holiday giving. And we're open year-round online!

Mountain-Grown and Mouthwatering

The Mountain Grill serves up light fare to burgers to BBQ—along with the ultimate Peach Barbecue Sauce. Our Bakery will tempt you with stuffed-to-the-brim fruit pies and our legendary Apple Cider Donuts. Between bites, the Country Store is chock full of delicious apple butter, fresh-pressed ciders, jams, jellies, fruit syrups, local crafts, and unique gifts.

Magnificent Sunsets

Enjoy a warm weather tradition. Our Thursday Evening Sunset Series is a great way to wind down the week with friends and family and a glass of fine wine or delicious hard cider in hand. The sunsets are glorious. The entertainment by local musicians is free. There's nothing else like it in Charlottesville!

Originally a land grant to a neighbor of Thomas Jefferson, Carter Mountain Orchard is a step back in farming history. Our family invites your family to enjoy the tastes, sights, and sounds of the orchard.
