

GLASNEVIN CEMETERY

Opened in 1832, Glasnevin is Ireland's National cemetery covering 124 acres (over 50 hectares); where over 1.6 million people are laid to rest including the iconic Brendan Behan & Luke Kelly.

DAILY GUIDED TOURS

Our knowledgeable & entertaining guides will take you on a journey, visiting the graves of Ireland's heroes, heroines, rogues, rebels & revolutionaries incl. Michael Collins, Éamon de Valera, Maud Gonne, Constance Markievicz & Daniel O'Connell. Self-guided options available.

We also provide private tours for groups of 15 or more. For further information, please contact our bookings department. See our website for information on times, rates & offerings.

Entry includes guided tour, access to museum & exhibits, re-enactment, €5 genealogy voucher & 10% discount in the Tower Café.

THE O'CONNELL TOWER

Visitors can now climb the iconic O'Connell Tower, Ireland's tallest round tower. Climb the 198 steps to stunning views of the cemetery, Dublin, Wicklow & the Irish Sea. Built to honour Daniel O'Connell, the ornate crypt where he has been laid to rest forms the base of the tower.

GENEALOGY & FAMILY HISTORY

Over 1.6 million records have been meticulously digitised & are available to access on our online genealogy database. Our resident genealogist Lynn Brady is available for consultations to help you use Glasnevin's records to start tracing your family history.

SPECIALIST TOURS & EVENTS

Glasnevin run a variety of special tours, genealogy workshops & seminars; & hosts a number of events & commemorations throughout the year. For up-to-date information on all tours & events, please visit our website.

WHAT VISITORS SAY ABOUT US

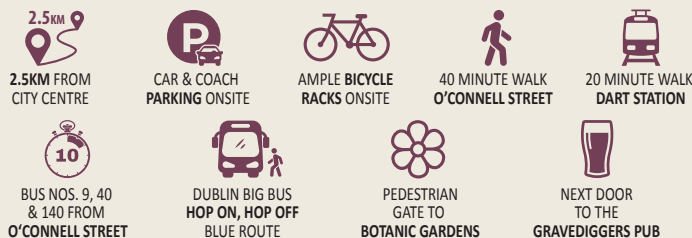

“The experience was absolutely top notch. Gráinne was honestly one of the best local guides I've ever seen, she was phenomenal. It was the highlight of the entire day”

Kaeleigh Campbell - Tour Leader
