10. BOTANIC GARDEN TOUR

DESCRIPTION:

Only 30 minutes from Cartagena is one of the most important ecological attractions of the region, with a living collection of more than 300 species of plants in the Colombian Caribbean and one of the few virgin native forests of the region. Guillermo Piñeres Botanical Garden has several special collections and about 2 km of trails. In the forest is a spring of very special water running all year. It is an ideal place to meet and learn from the fauna and flora of the Colombian Caribbean.

The trails, with an area of approximately 2,000 meters, allow to observe the collections of plants and native forest. During this fascinating tour you can see the monkeys howling in chorus cotudos, squirrels eating seeds, large iguanas running from the view of visitors and if one has luck may see a ñeque jumping in the garden.

One of the most venerable trees is a Caracolí with approximately 150 years and nearly 2m in diameter, a colossal tree with Alexander von Humboldt was amazed over two hundred years ago when he visited the Garden! His "water hole" forms a crystal clear stream known as Cartagena Matute which supplied its aqueduct until the first decade of the century.
