Considered Arizona’s first designated “Historic Highway,” the Apache Trail winds through the Superstition Mountains and offers amazing views of canyons, cliffs and early Arizona settlements. This scenic tour includes a casual guided walk through the Sonoran Desert featuring the exquisite flora and fauna of the Southwest. You will visit Goldfield Ghost Town, the old stagecoach stop at Tortilla Flat, and stunning Canyon Lake, where you will board the Dolly Steamboat for a cruise. Aboard the cruise, guests will enjoy views of awe-inspiring rock formations and the dramatic cliffs of the rugged Superstition desert wilderness.

$135/Adult$ | $105/Child
Includes: Dolly Steamboat Cruise and unlimited bottled water.
Duration: 8 hours
Departs: 8:30 am Wednesday, Friday and Sunday

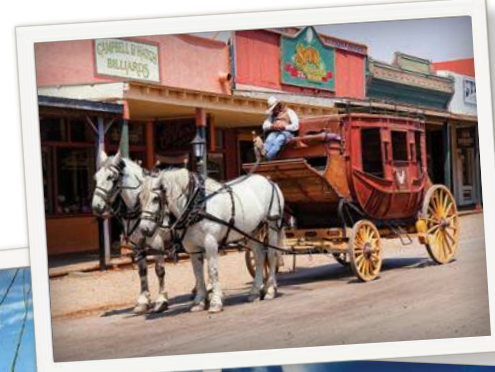

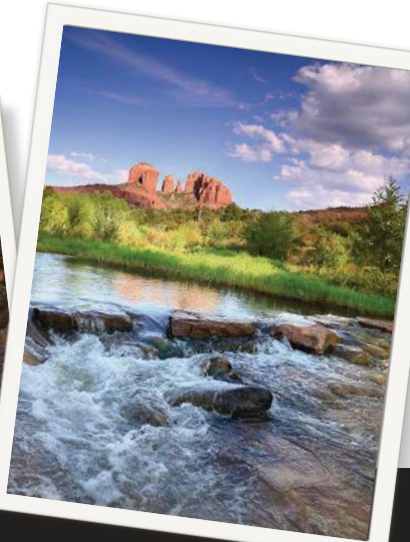

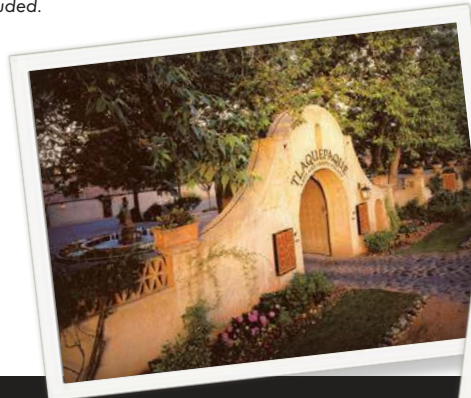

Spend a day in the town “too tough to die.” Walk the streets of Big Nose Kate’s Saloon, the OK Corral and the Birdcage Theatre. The legendary home of Doc Holliday and Wyatt Earp is yours to explore with a visit to the Tombstone Historical Courthouse and the Boot Hill Cemetery. It is here that some of the West’s most colorful characters are laid to rest. A truly unique stop on this tour is the “White Dove of the Desert”, the mission of San Xavier del Bac. This working mission was built in 1692 and remains one of the region’s best preserved Spanish settlements.

$150/Adult$ | $120/Child
Includes: Entry fees and unlimited bottled water.
Duration: 12 hours
Departs: 6:30 am Tuesday and Saturday

The Scottsdale/Phoenix area is alive with Sonoran desert scenery, culture and history. Old Town Scottsdale and the Central Phoenix Corridor are must-see locations when visiting the Southwest. You will enjoy desert views from several area mountain ranges, along with the shops and galleries of Old Town Scottsdale, Arizona’s sporting arenas and the historic capitol in Downtown Phoenix. Take in the amazing shapes and colors of Camelback Mountain and learn about the iconic neighborhoods of Biltmore and Paradise Valley.

$85/Adult$ | $65/Child
Includes: Unlimited bottled water.

Duration: 5 hours
