Why Should You Join SAMA?

• With four museums in Altoona, Johnstown, Ligonier and Loretto, SAMA boasts the longest-running satellite museum system in the country. SAMA is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums and each SAMA Museum is open to the public free of charge.

• SAMA's award-winning in-school and in-museum education programs serve thousands of students annually throughout Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Fayette, Somerset and Westmoreland counties.

• SAMA's permanent collection numbers nearly 5,000 works and includes works of international, national, regional and local merit. The Museum also is the world's foremost repository for the artwork of Magic Realist painter, Colleen Browning.

• SAMA mounts more than twenty exhibitions per year featuring regional local and national artists, as well as traveling shows and exhibitions from the permanent collection.

• Through the Museum/Healthcare Partnership Program, SAMA's trained artists and educators work with healthcare providers to facilitate programs designed to help residents suffering from mental and physical disabilities. SAMA recently expanded the program to work with disabled veterans and children with autism spectrum disorder.

• SAMA's four sites host a variety of programs throughout the year, including art camps, lecture programs, art classes, exhibition receptions, painting events, and the annual Gala, Garden Party and Think Pink fundraisers.
