WESTONS CIDER

has been lovingly produced in the Herefordshire village of Much Marcle for over 137 years. Nestling on a gentle hillside amongst apple and perry pear orchards, 'The Bounds', with its 400 year old farmhouse, is the centre piece to a unique day out for all the family to enjoy.

The Visitors Centre, set in a beautifully restored courtyard of farmyard buildings, provides a perfect opportunity to view Westons extensive range of cider and perries or join a guided tour of the Cider Mill.

GIFT VOUCHERS

The perfect gift for any cider lover.

Cider Mill tour vouchers and monetary vouchers available.

CIDER MILL TOUR

Greeted by our experienced tour guides you will be shown behind the scenes and guided through the heart of this thriving Cider Mill. Learn how cider is produced, from the planting of our orchards to the moment our premium cider is poured into a glass. Experience the atmospheric and fragrant vat shed, housing our historic oak vats, still being used today. After your tour you will have the opportunity to sample and savour some of Westons finest ciders and perries.

Tours daily at:
11.00am, 12.30pm, 2.00pm and 3.30pm.
Booking is recommended.

SITE DETAILS:

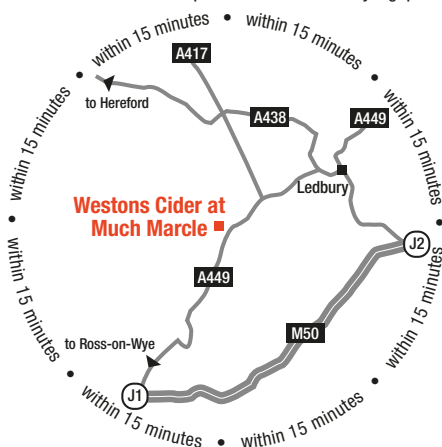

Access for people with disabilities. Westons is a working Cider Mill and some areas can be difficult to negotiate. Tours are unsuitable for wheelchair users. For your own safety we ask that appropriate footwear and clothing is worn. A majority of the tour is outside and involves climbing stairs or uneven ground. Children under the age of 18 will not be permitted to sample or purchase alcohol.

How to Find us:

We are situated in Much Marcle, just off the A449.

At Much Marcle cross roads, (with the old Garage and Walwyn Arms), turn right from Ledbury, or left from Ross-on-Wye.

Westons is about 1/2 mile up the road and is clearly signposted.
