Cook School

Changing Lives Through Food

Two young women are smiling and looking at each other. They are both wearing black polo shirts and bright green aprons. The woman on the left is holding a black tray with several chocolate chip scones. The woman on the right is also holding a black tray with several plain scones. A white towel with a colorful pattern is draped over her apron. In the center of the image, there is a quote in red text, flanked by two green wavy lines.

“100% OF PROFITS GO
TO HELPING WEST
LOTHIAN’S MOST DISADVANTAGED YOUNG PEOPLE GAIN THE SKILLS
AND CONFIDENCE THEY NEED TO MOVE INTO WORK”

Welcome to THE LARDER COOK SCHOOL

---

Since 2010 the Larder has been changing lives through food. Our expertise and passion means that we can deliver food related experiences that everyone enjoys. Whether you want to learn to cook, have a fun night out, build your team or simply enjoy some very tasty food, the Larder Cook School is the place to be.

We're a social enterprise which means that whilst we run as a business, 100% of profits go to helping West Lothian's most disadvantaged young people gain the skills and confidence they need to move into work.

Our bespoke cook school classes provide excellent professional tuition in a relaxed and welcoming environment.

Cooking FOR SCHOOLS

The Larder is passionate about healthy food choices and giving children key life skills, starting at an early age. Not only are our classes fun for children but they also encompass key elements of the curriculum by teaching children about health, enterprise and personal development. School Cookery classes can be held at the Larder or in your School.
