Harding House offers charming comfort, conveniently located in mid Cambridge—within walking distance of the Harvard and MIT campuses. Small enough to make you feel at home, yet large enough to give you privacy, Our rooms are spacious and bright, furnished with what you need. Our rotating breakfast menu provides delicious fresh baked items, healthy alternatives, and homemade entrées from our kitchen. Our informed, attentive staff is at your service with suggestions on local shopping, dining, tours, theater and music venues – or a few moments of friendly conversation. Just as you may do at home, we support local vendors, community organizations and work to reduce our environmental footprint. We look forward to being your “home away from home” whether you are traveling for business or pleasure.
